International Aquatic History Symposium & Film Festival

The Organizing Committee of the International Swimming Hall of Fame (ISHOF) is pleased to announce the inaugural International Aquatic History Symposium & Film Festival (IAHSFF) that will be held in Ft Lauderdale, Florida, USA in May 9-12, 2012.

IAHSFF aims to act as avenue for the preservation of aquatic history and cinematography as well as a destination where athletes, scholars, educators, artists, memorabilia collectors, the general public and professionals in aquatics, lifesaving, and public health will meet, exchange ideas, and learn about our aquatic past and present. The event will include keynote speakers, oral and poster presentations, a film festival, book signings, a museum tour and exhibitions. Seven prestigious prizes for extraordinary contributions will be presented. For more information, please visit: www.iahsff.com.

ISHOF is a not-for-profit educational organization located in Fort Lauderdale, Florida (USA). Its mission is to promote the benefits and importance of swimming as a key to fitness, good health, quality of life, and the water safety of children. For more information, please visit: www.ishof.org.
